Summary: Worst of any, however, were the fertilizer men, and those who served in the cooking rooms. These people could not be shown to the visitor - for the odor of a fertilizer man would scare any ordinary visitor at a hundred yards, and as for the other men, who worked in tank rooms full of steam, and in some of which there were open vats near the level of the floor, their peculiar trouble was that they fell into the vats; and when they were fished out, there was never enough of them left to be worth exhibiting - sometimes they would be overlooked for days, till all but the bones of them had gone out to the world as Durham's Pure Leaf Lard!

Summary: Worst of any, however, were the fertilizer men, and those who served in the cookhouses. These people could not be shown to the visitor - for the odor of a fertilizer man would scare a visitor at a hundred yards, and as for the other men, who worked in tank rooms full of steam, some of which there were open vats near the level of the floor, their peculiar trouble was that they fell into the vats; and when they were fished out, there was never enough of them left to be worth exhibiting - sometimes they would be overlooked for days, till all but the bones of them had been sent to the world as Durham's Pure Leaf Lard!

15. A.J.'s Petition was referred to the 18th Judicial District Fee Dispute Resolution Panel. Based on the foregoing Findings of Fact and with the consent of the parties, the Hearing Panel enters the following:

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. All parties are properly before the Hearing Panel, and the Panel has jurisdiction over Defendant and the subject matter of this proceeding.
2. Defendant's conduct constitutes grounds for discipline pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. § 84-28(b)(2) in that Defendant violated the Rules of Professional Conduct in effect at the time of his actions as follows:
  - (a) By failing to respond to A.J.'s inquiries about the status of the matter from the 30 September 2014 to the present, Defendant violated Rule 1.4(a)(4).
  - (b) By failing to respond promptly to A.J.'s inquiries about the status of the matter, Defendant failed to respond promptly with a reasonable request for information in violation of Rule 1.4(a)(4); and
  - (c) By failing to provide a response to the fee dispute, Defendant failed to participate in good faith in the fee dispute resolution process in violation of Rule 1.5(f)(2).

Based on the foregoing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and with the consent of the parties, the Hearing Panel also enters the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT REGARDING DISCIPLINE

1. The findings of fact in paragraphs 1 – 23 above are reincorporated as if set forth herein.
2. Defendant's continued representation of A.J. was not a sufficient substitute for good faith participation in the fee dispute resolution process.
3. Defendant has prior professional discipline, to wit: a 2009 Admonition for neglecting a client matter and failing to communicate with a client; a 2010 Reprimand for neglecting a client matter, failing to communicate with a client, and failing to respond timely to the Bar; and a 2014 Censure for neglecting a client matter and failing to communicate with a client.
4. Defendant has failed to maintain adequate and appropriate communication with a client in spite of being disciplined for similar failures on three prior occasions. Lawyers who demonstrate continued disregard for their professional obligations pose a risk of significant harm to the public and the legal profession.

Based on the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law above, the additional Findings of Fact Regarding Discipline, and the consent of the parties, the Hearing Panel makes the following:

This matter was considered by a Hearing Panel of the Disciplinary Hearing Commission composed of Beverly T. Beal, Chair, and members N. Hunter Wyche, Jr., and Randy Moreau, pursuant to North Carolina Administrative Code, Title 27, Chapter 1, Subchapter B, § .0114(h). Plaintiff, the North Carolina State Bar, was represented by Maria J. Brown. Defendant, Nicholas S. Ackerman, appeared pro se. Defendant waives a formal hearing in this matter, and both parties stipulate and consent to the findings of fact and conclusions of law recited in this consent order and to the discipline imposed. Defendant consents to entry of this order of discipline and freely and voluntarily waives any and all right to appeal the entry of this order or to challenge in any way the sufficiency of the findings.

Based upon the pleadings in this matter, the parties' stipulations of fact, and with the consent of the parties, the Hearing Panel hereby finds by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Plaintiff, the North Carolina State Bar, is a body duly organized under the laws of North Carolina and is the proper party to bring this proceeding under the authority granted it in Chapter 84 of the General Statutes of North Carolina and the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar promulgated thereunder.

2. Defendant, Defendant, Nicholas S. Ackerman ("Defendant" or "Ackerman"), was admitted to the North Carolina State Bar in August 1998 and is an Attorney at Law subject to the rules, regulations, and Rules of Professional Conduct of the North Carolina State Bar and the laws of the State of North Carolina.

3. Defendant was properly served with process, and the matter came before the Hearing Panel with due notice to all parties.

Stayed suspension of Defendant's law license for one (1) year, effective from the dat...

1. The Hearing Panel has carefully considered all of the different forms of discipline available to it. In addition, the Hearing Panel has considered all of the factors enumerated in 27 N.C.A.C. 1B §.0114(w)(1) of the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar and concludes the following factors warrant consideration of suspension of Defendant's license:

- (B) Intent of the defendant to commit acts where the harm or potential harm is foreseeable; and
- (E) Negative impact of defendant's actions on client's or public's perception of the profession.

2. The Hearing Panel concludes that none of the factors enumerated in 27 N.C.A.C. 1B §.0114(w)(1) of the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar are present in this

The Hearing Panel has considered all of the factors enumerated in 27 N.C.A.C. 1B §.0114(w)(1) of the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar and concludes the following factors are applicable in this matter:

- (A) Defendant's prior disciplinary offenses;
- (C) Absence of dishonest or selfish motive;
- (O) Refusal to acknowledge wrongful nature of conduct; and
- (S) Defendant's degree of experience in the practice of law.

4. The Hearing Panel has considered lesser alternatives and finds that a censure, reprimand, or admonition would be insufficient discipline because of the significant potential harm to the public and legal profession posed by Defendant's conduct.

5. Although Defendant's conduct is serious enough to warrant more than a censure, it does not warrant an active suspension of his license.

6. A stayed suspension of Defendant's law license is warranted because entry of an order imposing less severe discipline would fail to acknowledge the seriousness of the misconduct and would send the wrong message to attorneys and the public about the conduct expected of members of the Bar of this State.

Based upon the foregoing Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and the Findings and Conclusions Regarding Discipline, and with the consent of the parties, the Hearing Panel enters the following:

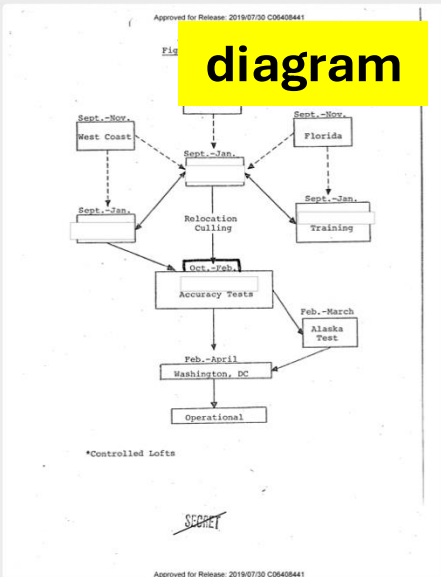

ORDER OF DISCIPLINE:

1. The law license of Defendant, Nicholas S. Ackerman, is hereby suspended for one (1) year, effective from the date this Order of Discipline is served upon him. The period of suspension is stayed for two (2) years as long as Defendant complies and continues to comply with the following conditions:

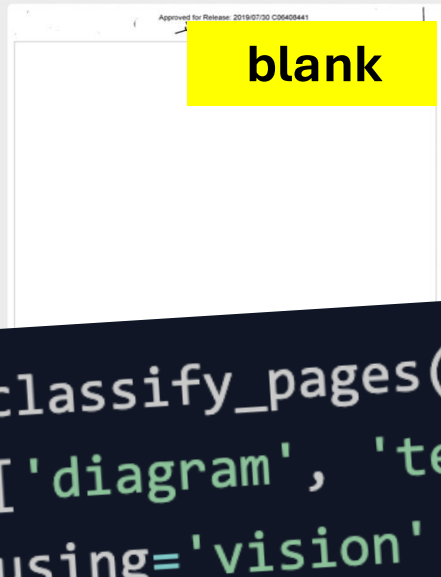

- (a) Defendant shall arrange for an active member of the North Carolina State Bar to serve as his law practice monitor. Defendant's practice monitor shall be an attorney in good standing who practices law in the judicial district in which Defendant practices law and who has been approved by the Office of Counsel. The monitor shall agree to supervise all client matters and make reasonable efforts
